of to THE SUN AND NEW YORK HERALD PALM BEACH, Fla., Feb. 11 .- Aquastantag is becoming a part of the daily water sports here. This morning, not only Mr. Caleb S. Brags, who yesterday introduced the innovation of ridme the surf on a mattrees towed by Mr. Barclay Warburton's speed boat the Sea Robin, but Miss Alice A. De Lamer entertained the throng on the beach by an exhibition of aqua-planing. On a two foot board like a Hawaiian surf coaster, towed behind her speed bont, the Depeche, Miss De Lamar cut great the Pepeche, Miss De Lamar Cut Rical circles on the water while the crowd on the beach applauded. Mr. Bragg repeated his exhibition of yesterday.

Mrs. J. Allen Townsand of New York attracted much attention by her bathing costume. She were one of the new yelestance. She with in black with stripes of black satin running lengthwise down the skirt, which renched the knees, fall-ing over black velvet knickers. With this she wore a black satin bathing hat turned up on one side. She carried a Japanese parasol of black and yellow. She were also black silk gloves reach-ing well over the elbows, both in and out of the water Miss Betty Pierson, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. J. Fred Pierson, Jr., who had just arrived from the North, had a busy marning greeting friends on the beach. Mrs. Pierson had tea for her this afterthe cocoanut grove. Fishing boats dotted the water all prenoon, kingfish running in plenty.

Among those who came in with kingfish were Measus Florenz Ziegfeld, Jr., and Irving Berlin. Messus, J. Leonard Replecte, Joslah S. Cosden, David Wagstaff and Barclay Warburton have all brought in fine specimens of satisfish.

Willem Rengelberg to Join head of the casualty company. Before Artur Bodanzky Late Next Season.

Willem Mengelberg, for many years onductor of the Concertgebour Orches- of the Associated Press. tra of Amsterdam, Holland, has been engaged for the major portion of the nusical season of 1920-1921 to cooperate with Artur Bodansky as director of the New Symphony Orchestra, Inc., of the Musicians New Orchestra Society. The engagement was announced yesterday by S. E. MacMillen, manager of the orchestra, a cable message from Amsterdam having contained Mr. Mengelberg's acceptance of the terms offered. The eminent Dutch conductor was engaged because Mr. Bodangky's contract with the Metropolitan Opera Company precluded him from giving his entire time to the New Symphony.

Mr. MacMillen, in making the anment, said : "Mr. Mengenberg will come to America for several months beginning or January 1, 1921, and will join Mr. Bo-danzky in leading the orchestra through an augmented season which it is pro-posed will end with a spring festival of international scope, at which the world's greatest artists will be called upon to aid Mr. Bedanzky and Mr. Mengelberg. The directors feel that the presence here next reason at the head of our orchestra of two of the greatest conductors in the musical mecca of concertgoers, as it is low of opera. 'Mengelberg has been one of Europe's emier conductors for almost a quarter of a century. He was born at Utrecht, Holland, in 1871, and was educated at the conservatory there. He intended to be a pinnist, but was persuaded to accept the position of musical director at Lucerne. Switzerland, a post which he assumed in his twentieth year. His achievements there attracted such attentions to be a supply to the conductor of the ion that he was made conductor of the oncertgebour Orchestra in Amsterdam n 1895.
